AUTHORIZATION TO SHARE CAPSTONE PROJECT

Capstone Authors--

Students often ask to view examples of capstone projects as they embark upon their own, and faculty, too, find it useful to see the range of projects students have submitted in the past. If you are willing to have your project viewed by future students and faculty, please indicate below. If you agree, your project may be selected from the departmental archive from time to time to serve as an example. Your work will not be published or made publicly available in any form. On behalf of future students, thank you for making your work available if you choose to do so.

--Director of Graduate Studies

If you agree to offer your work as an example, please sign this form and submit it with your full document. If you do not agree, do not include this form when you submit your document.

I agree that my capstone project may be used as an example for students or faculty as described above.
