

Departmental Drop for Non-attendance

Students enrolled in courses in the College of Humanities and Social Sciences will be subject to the following Drop for Non-Attendance Policy. This policy is intended to apply to courses where student demand exceeds enrollment capacity. Instructors wanting to initiate this policy in their sections should e-mail their class rolls about this policy. Targeted sections should be filled to capacity and should have a wait list.

*By the third class/laboratory period or the fifth business day of the semester (whichever comes first) students who have not attended class or contacted the instructor regarding his/her absence may be dropped from the undergraduate class roll. This drop will be initiated by the Associate Dean of the College upon the request of the department. The student may petition the department for readmission to the class if s/he has been dropped in error, or in the event of students with extenuating circumstances, provided the request is received by the tenth business day of the semester. Students who intend to drop a course continue to have the responsibility to officially drop and are encouraged to do this on a timely basis, following normal university procedures.
